

Golden Triangle Tiger Safari Expedition

11-DAY WILDLIFE & HERITAGE EXPEDITION

Step into India's wild heart on a journey that connects the country's most iconic tiger reserves – Kanha, Bandhavgarh, and Panna – before concluding amid the timeless splendour of Agra. Over eleven days, experience the soul of Central India through mist-draped meadows, rocky sal forests, and river canyons alive with bird calls.

Guided by acclaimed wildlife photographer Sachin Sarbalia, this small-group expedition blends field photography mentorship, ethical travel, and the unmatched drama of India's wilderness.

Day 2 – Fly to Jabalpur → Drive to Kanha

Begin your journey with a morning flight to Jabalpur (included), followed by a scenic four-hour drive to Kanha National Park. Upon arrival, check in at the Lodge, a tranquil retreat surrounded by dense forest. As evening descends, gather for an introduction to the region's rich natural history and a detailed photography briefing to prepare for the days ahead.

• ITINERARY •

Days 3 – 4 – In the Heart of Kanha

Spend two full days exploring Kanha's vast meadows and sal forests on morning and afternoon safaris. Track tigers, barasingha, leopards, and gaur while refining your photography skills – mastering light, composition, and timing under your mentor's guidance. Evenings unfold in the warmth of storytelling sessions and starlit dinners, creating the perfect close to immersive days in the wild. Overnight at the Lodge.

Day 5 – Drive to Bandhavgarh

After breakfast, embark on a scenic five-hour drive to Bandhavgarh National Park. Upon arrival, check in at the Lodge which will be nestled amid serene wilderness. Spend the evening at leisure or join an optional photo review session by the campfire, reflecting on your journey so far under the quiet glow of the forest night.

• ITINERARY •

Days 6 – 7 – Tracking Tigers in Bandhavgarh

Enjoy morning and afternoon safaris in Bandhavgarh's famed core zones – Tala and Magdhi – known for their remarkable tiger density. Capture striking images of tigers framed by ancient temple ruins, dense forests, and golden-hour meadows. As the day winds down, return to the Lodge for dinner and an overnight stay amid the tranquility of the forest.

Day 8 – To Panna via Khajuraho

Depart in the morning for a scenic five-hour drive to Panna Tiger Reserve, stopping en route at the magnificent Khajuraho Temples – a UNESCO World Heritage Site renowned for its intricate carvings and architectural brilliance. Arrive by evening at the Lodge, where dinner and an overnight stay await amid the serene wilderness.
